

The Time to Buy in "Don Luis" Is Now

What has made Colorado Springs the most beautiful town in all the great west? Let us tell you: mines for ore, electric transportation for another, enterprise and wise building restrictions for another. Don Luis has, or will have, all these things. Colorado Springs is situated four miles from Colorado City, the smelting and manufacturing point for the raw material of the nearby mountains. The location of Don Luis to Bisbee is a most identical to that of Colorado Springs to Colorado City. The Strattons and other magnates of Cripple Creek, the near-by camp, make Colorado Springs their homes, just as the people of the various industries hereabout will build their home in Don Luis. With this difference at the present time the man with little money can buy a lot and make a home while at the Colorado resort prices have gradually, but surely, grown so high that only the wealthy can afford residence lots there. Of course the same thing will happen here. But those who buy NOW will be benefited by this movement. Draw the lesson from Colorado Springs and you cannot go amiss.

If You Want a Home. If you Want an Investment Don Luis Addition Is the Place to Buy.

Several buildings are already under construction. The preliminary survey of the electric line is being made. Everything is being done that men and money can do to make this the most comfortable and most beautiful residence section in Arizona.

A Word to Those Who Have Purchased

Not a single person who has purchased in Don Luis but will be sorry that he or she did not buy more. You must remember that every dollar's worth of improvements put out by the townsite company is going to enhance the value of your purchase just so much. The electric road, the drives, the buildings—all tend toward higher prices. If you only have one lot, buy another. If you have two lots, buy two more, and you'll thank us for offering the suggestion. Now is the time to buy. Write, wire or apply in person to the
